Krewe de Walleye
MINNESOTA CAJUN & ZYDECO
MUSIC & DANCE ASSOCIATION

If you love music, dance & good company, we need you to join us!

Krewe de Walleye (MCZMDA) was formed in October 1998 when a group of Cajun and zydeco music and dance enthusiasts decided to create a group to bring up more Cajun, Creole & zydeco music to sustain them between visits to Louisiana. Since then, the Krewe's mission has expanded to embrace our vibrant local C/Z music scene as well.

Krewe de Walleye supports, sponsors, and organizes Cajun and zydeco music and dance activities by:

- Hosting dances with Cajun and zydeco bands from Louisiana and the Twin Cities area
- Sponsoring Cajun and zydeco dance lessons and music workshops
- Increasing awareness of Cajun & zydeco music and dance and Cajun and Creole culture
- Promoting Cajun and zydeco music and dance activities in the dance community
- Providing support for the John Hugelen Cajun Music Scholarship Fund

Benefits of joining Krewe de Walleye include:

- Member discounts to Krewe-sponsored dances and activities
- Belonging to and supporting a group of music-loving and dance-loving folks
- Learning about Cajun and Creole culture
- A $5 discount coupon to a Krewe-sponsored event of your choice
